

Friends of the Poor in South India

Privacy Policy

Preservation of our Supporters' privacy is important to Friends of the Poor in South India and we are committed to letting you know how we use your personal information and to making only responsible use of your data.

References to "we", "us", or "our" in this Privacy Policy are references to Friends of the Poor in South India, a charity registered in England, registered charity number 1126907.

1. Information about you

1.1 We will collect personal information from you when you first donate to us, subscribe to our mailing list or enquire about our activities. This may include your name, title, email address, physical address, and telephone numbers. If you have set up a Standing Order to donate to us, we will also have details of the bank account you used to set up the Standing Order.

2. Our use of this information

2.1 Your personal information will only be used to provide you with information relating to the operation of Friends of the Poor in South India in accordance with its stated Objects.

2.2 We will not share your information with any other individual or organisation without your specific consent, except, where you have signed a Gift Aid form, to give details of your name, address and the aggregate amount of your donations in any financial year to HMRC as part of our Gift Aid returns to HMRC.

2.3 We will only keep your personal information for so long as we need it for the purpose acquired or need to retain it to comply with legal obligations.

3. Security

3.1 We will take reasonable precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of information you give us.

3.2 Data held on the website is password protected and is available to only a few named individuals.

3.3 Paper records containing personal information are held in a secure manner by our treasurer, with access restricted to named FPSI trustees.

3.4 Communications in connection with Friends of the Poor in South India may be sent by e-mail or by post. For ease of use and compatibility, communications will not be sent in an encrypted form. E-mail, unless encrypted, is not a fully secure means of communication. Whilst we endeavour to keep our systems and communications protected against viruses and other harmful effects we cannot bear responsibility for all communications being virus-free.

4. Cookies

4.1 Cookies are not used on the Friends of the Poor in South India website.

5. Other information

5.1 If you would like us to correct or update any information, or if you would like information deleted from our records, then please email us at suscriptions@fpsi.org.uk or write to us at Supporters' Secretary, Friends of the Poor in South India, 12 Greenacres, Colchester CO4 5DX.

5.2 If you are unhappy about the way we hold or use your personal information, please contact us and we shall try to address your concerns.

5.3 This privacy policy may be updated from time to time, so please check it periodically.

5.4 Links within our website to other websites are not covered by this privacy policy.
